Half Sick Half Well

Many persons have their good day and their bad day. Others are about half sick all the time. They have headache, backache, and are restless and nervous. Food does not taste good, and the digestion is poor; the skin is dry and scaly and disfigured with pimples or eruptions. Sleep brings no rest and work is a burden. What causes this? Impure blood. And the remedy?

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It takes out all impurities from the blood. When these are removed, nature takes right hold and completes the cure. Price, 50c a bottle. At all druggists. If there is a bottle, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Write to the doctor all the particulars in your case. You will receive a prompt reply. Address, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass.

OUTLOOK

For the Formation of the Trust Not Bright.

The Ohio manufacturers, who, with those from several adjoining states, have been working so industriously to form a trust composed of sewer pipe makers, have been in session for several days at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, says a New York special to the Enquirer.

It is an adjourned session from three weeks ago, since which time the combination has been incorporated under the laws of Maryland. The outlook for the different plants interested getting into a full-fledged, throbbing and thriving trust is not sufficiently bright for any of those who have a hand at the lever to throw up his hat and yell over success.

TO DO GOOD

Has Been His Misson.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Father Mahar's

Ordination Into the Priesthood.

Loved and Esteemed by His Congregation.

Feeling Expressions of Their Sentiment.

Perhaps were Rev. Dr. T. F. Mahar to have decided for himself, the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination in the priesthood would have been less elaborately celebrated. While such celebrations are popular, they are not fixed events within the customs of the church, being optional with the pastor who has completed 25 years of service in the ministry, and Dr. Mahar had intended the event to pass without special notice. But the congregation of the St. Vincent de Paul church, of which he is pastor, were not so inclined. Their desire to celebrate the anniversary royally was shared with enthusiasm by a large number of Dr. Mahar's brother pastors, and weeks ago preparations were begun for the proper observance of the happy occasion. As there remained nothing else for the reverend father to do but

REV. THOMAS F. MAHAR,
Pastor St. Vincent's Church.

LIVELY SATIRE Upon Policy of Minis- terial Alliance.

Rev. Myers Does Not Believe Pastors Should Prosecute.

At the meeting of the Evangelical Alliance a week ago some of the ministers who dissented from the proposition that the Alliance should take the initiative in prosecuting keepers of Sunday theaters, were severely criticized for so-called "want of backbone." Among those who were opposed to having the ministers undertake the prosecutions as an Alliance were Revs. Brightmore, Myers, McMahon and Haddock.

Rev. Myers, pastor of the St. Paul's Lutheran church, in the course of an able discourse yesterday upon the subject of "Universal Peace," replied to the criticism upon those who do not consider it a part of their duty as Christian ministers to prosecute offenders against the law. He said in part:

"In my dream I went forward to A. D. 2500, and beheld with pleasure acquiescence to the will of his friends, he did so gracefully, his attitude being one full of appreciation and gratitude to those who desire to do him honor, and also to all his many friends who hope that the event may be to him one full of pleasure and enjoyment.

Dr. Mahar is an unassuming gentleman, an able and faithful pastor, loved by the members of his congregation and esteemed by his friends. He was born at Scranton, Pa., Sept. 28, 1851. His parents were Thomas and Ann Mahar. His early education was received in the parochial school of the Immaculate Conception, Cleveland. Afterwards he attended St. Mary's college, also of Cleveland. Going to Rome in 1889, he entered an American college, from which he graduated in 1874, his ordination into the priesthood being on May 30, that year. His college record was a brilliant one, he having attained after a rigid examination two titles—Doctor of Philosophy and Doctor of Divinity. He continued his studies in Rome until August, 1875, when he returned to this country.

Shortly after his return, Dr. Mahar was made assistant to Monsignor Boft, pastor of the Cathedral in Cleveland, and remained in that position until 1890, when he was appointed pastor of the St. Vincent de Paul's church, this city. He took charge of the church August 1, 1890, and has been its pastor ever since.

His administration at the St. Vincent de Paul's church has been very successful, not only spiritually, but also materially. The church building has been enlarged considerably and improved in other ways. He also erected the present parochial residence and the splendid parochial school, besides making valuable additions to the real estate property. The buildings and grounds are well kept and present a beautiful and attractive appearance.

The celebration began Sunday

IN MEMORY

Of Fallen Heroes.

Special Services In the Churches Sunday.

Patriotic Sermons Were Preached by Pastors.

The Exercises at the Public Schools.

Program For Memorial Day—Akron Orators Abroad.

The services in the various churches of the city Sunday were characterized by patriotism.

The pastors delivered sermons marked by words in honor of those who had given up their lives in the defense of the Stars and Stripes.

The music, always a feature of the services, was largely given to the National airs. The Red, White and Blue was everywhere in the decorations.

The members of the G. A. R. did not attend services, as heretofore, in a body. Instead, each veteran made his own choice, going to the church where he regularly attended services. In the Sunday schools, old soldiers addressed the children.

A Lincoln Command No. 1, U. V. U. and Lincoln Union No. 2, W. V. R. U., attended Memorial services at the Wabash ave. Church of Christ Sunday afternoon. An eloquent and patriotic Memorial sermon was preached by the pastor, B. C. Caywood. His subject, "The Soldier's Rest," was handled in a masterly manner.

At the Grace Reformed church at 9:30 o'clock, Captain H. T. Fisher of Cleveland addressed the Sunday school. He also spoke in the evening. At 10:30 Rev. Willard preached a Memorial sermon, "Deeds of Daring, What are They Worth."

Union Memorial services were held in the Broad Street Church of Christ Sunday evening, at which Rev. Lindemuth preached on "The Cost of Liberty."

Special patriotic services were conducted at the West Congregational church Sunday evening at which Hon. Charles Dick delivered the principal address.

Rev. N. J. Myers, of St. Paul's Lutheran church, preached to the veterans Sunday evening on "Universal Peace as Shadowed by Our Peace Congress." Memorial services were held by the Sunday school in the morning.

The special memorial services at the balance of the churches were attended by large congregations, who listened with patriotic interest to the sermons.

At the Cemeteries.

The relatives and friends of departed soldiers visited the cemeteries Sunday and decorated the graves with flowers. At Glendale the floral offerings are especially beautiful.

SHREWD GAME

Played by Central Union Telephone Company.

An Injunction Issued by the United States Courts.

A shrewd move was made by the attorneys for the Central Union Telephone company Saturday when a petition was filed to remove the injunction action against it to the United States circuit court.

By doing this the case was taken out of the hands of Judge Kohler. United States Judge Ricks is in session was at Cincinnati. The injunction against the company expired Monday morning at 10 o'clock. City Solicitor Esqate learning that a petition for removal had been filed, immediately took steps to block the game. He left for Cincinnati Sunday, where he appeared before the United States court Monday.

The injunction issued here against the company is no longer in force. The one against Manager Druckemiller has been continued indefinitely. Solicitor Esqate had papers prepared to present to the court at Cincinnati immediately upon his arrival there. At noon today, a message was received in Akron announcing that an injunction had been issued by Judge Ricks of the United States court restraining the Central Union from tearing up the local streets.

The injunction continues until the further order of the court.

The legal committee of the Citizens' committee had prepared to ask if the United States court did not issue an injunction. The City Commissioners would have been asked to have any work on the streets stopped by the police force.

DOUBLE TRACKS

Between This City and Kent—In- spection Made.

J. W. Morris, formerly general roadmaster of the Cincinnati division of the Erie road, but now on the C. & E. division, spent Monday looking over the track between Tallmadge and Ravenna, with a view of double tracking for a distance of 12 miles. The improvement is suggested by the difficulty experienced in getting in and out of the terminal station at Kent.

Considerable grading will have to be done before the track can be built, but the better facilities to be gained by the double track will soon overbalance the expenditure for the improvement.

Dancing afternoon and evening at Randolph park, Decoration day. Music by Duquesne orchestra.

The Patience dancing club of the B. F. Goodrich Co. will give a prize cake walk and ball at Randolph park Monday evening. Race Horse Charlie, the famous cake walker of Cleveland, will lead the cake walk. Prof. Stickle's classes are especially invited.

ALL ARTISTS.

The Vaudeville Performance at Lake- side Park Casino.

Lakeside park Casino opened the summer season yesterday, packed to the doors at each performance, and demonstrated to the most skeptical that the masses wish to be amused. They were truly well pleased yesterday, as every performance was endorsed and cheered until they were entirely exhausted. Much praise is due Manager Harry Hawn for giving the people such an excellent performance. He assures us this show is hardly a criterion to go by, as he has some of the top notchers in the vaudeville profession booked for every week during the summer season. The following will positively appear every afternoon and evening during the week:

LaDazie, the wonderful toe dancer is by far the greatest artist ever seen here. Her rag-time dancing on the tips of her toes was a revelation to the large audience yesterday and she was applauded to the echo. She is a little bundle of silks, flounces and ruffles not much bigger than a Brownie, but with a smile and a pair of dainty feet twice as bewitching as Brownies are even supposed to possess and dances her way to the hearts of all beholders.

Ely and Harvey in a black face sketch, made a decided hit.

Zimmer, the juggler, was the finest ever seen here, and his feats were wonderful, as also Rasaire, the artist of the wire, who held the audience spellbound. Harry Edson and his pug dog "Doc," the dog with the gold teeth and human brain, was wonderful. The electric quartette was fine and was encored several times. There will be a matinee every day except Monday.
